8 April 2026

Intuitive Investments Group plc
(Incorporated in England and Wales with company number: 12664320)

To: Employees of Intuitive Investments Group plc pursuant to Rule 2.11(a)(ii) of the UK's City Code on Takeovers and Mergers

Dear Colleagues

Possible Offer for Intuitive Investments Group plc ("IIG" or the "Company") by Acceler8 Ventures plc ("AC8")

We are writing to inform you that on 8 April 2026, IIG announced that it has reached an agreement in principle on the terms of a possible all-share offer for the entire issued and to be issued ordinary capital of IIG from AC8 (the "Possible Offer") (the "Announcement"). Such Announcement commenced an offer period under the UK's City Code on Takeovers and Mergers (the "Code") (the "Offer Period").

In accordance with the requirements of Rule 2.11 of the Code, I am writing to make you aware of the Possible Offer and provide a copy of the Announcement, which can also be found on the Company's website at www.iigplc.com.

A copy of this letter, the Announcement and certain irrevocable undertakings referred to therein and all other documents and announcements relating to the Possible Offer process will remain available during the course of the Offer Period on IIG's website at www.iigplc.com. This letter is not to be taken as a summary of the information in the Announcement and should not be regarded as a substitute for reading the Announcement in full. For the avoidance of doubt, neither the content of the Company's nor AC8's websites are incorporated into and do not form part of this letter.

The Possible Offer is expected to be effected by means of a court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006, further details of which are contained in the full text of the Announcement. At this stage, the Possible Offer remains subject to, inter alia, the approval of IIG's shareholders. Market regulations mean that we are limited in saying anything beyond what is included in the Announcement.

In addition, this letter is intended to inform you that as an employee of the Company you have a right under Rule 25.9 of the Code to have published, at the Company's cost, a separate opinion on the effects of the Possible Offer on your employment, but only if an opinion is received by the Company in good time. Any such opinion will be appended to any circular on the Possible Offer that may be published by the Company in accordance with the requirements of Rule 25.9 of the Code. The Company will be responsible for the costs reasonably incurred by employees in obtaining advice required for the verification of any information contained in such an opinion in order to comply with the highest standards of care and accuracy that are required by Rule 19.1 of the Code.

We would also remind all employees with a direct or indirect interest of 1% or more in the relevant securities of the Company of their disclosure obligations under Rule 8 of the Code (as further described below).

For legal and compliance reasons, it is important that you (either internally or externally) do not speculate about the Possible Offer or respond to any enquiries in connection with the Offer that you receive (including from industry analysts, journalists or any other third party). Please also refrain from contacting any of IIG's customers, employees or other stakeholders.

Your attention is also drawn to the summary of disclosure requirements of the Code within the Announcement and as set out in the notes to this letter below.

Yours faithfully

Giles Willits

Chief Executive Officer

Intuitive Investments Group plc

It is important that you note that unless you make such a request, a hard copy of such documents will not be sent to you. You may also request that all future documents, announcements and information to be sent to you in relation to the Possible Offer should be in hard copy form.

Should you have any queries in relation to any administrative matter relating to this letter or the Announcement, please contact IIG's Registrar via the contact details set out above.

Disclosure requirements of the Code

Under Rule 8.3(a) of the Code, any person who is interested in 1% or more of any class of relevant securities of an offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror (being any offeror other than an offeror in respect of which it has been announced that its offer is, or is likely to be, solely in cash) must make an Opening Position Disclosure following the commencement of the offer period and, if later, following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. An Opening Position Disclosure must contain details of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s). An Opening Position Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(a) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 p.m. (London time) on the 10th business day following the commencement of the offer period and, if appropriate, by no later than 3.30 p.m. (London time) on the 10th business day following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. Relevant persons who deal in the relevant securities of the offeree company or of a securities exchange offeror prior to the deadline for making an Opening Position Disclosure must instead make a Dealing Disclosure.

Under Rule 8.3(b) of the Code, any person who is, or becomes, interested in 1% or more of any class of relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror must make a Dealing Disclosure if the person deals in any relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror. A Dealing Disclosure must contain details of the dealing concerned and of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s), save to the extent that these details have previously been disclosed under Rule 8. A Dealing Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(b) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 p.m. (London time) on the business day following the date of the relevant dealing.

If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire or control an interest in relevant securities of an offeree company or a securities exchange offeror, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3.

Intuitive Investments
Group plc

Opening Position Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company and by any offeror and Dealing Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company, by any offeror and by any persons acting in concert with any of them (see Rules 8.1, 8.2 and 8.4).

Details of the offeree and offeror companies in respect of whose relevant securities Opening Position Disclosures and Dealing Disclosures must be made can be found in the Disclosure Table on the Takeover Panel's website at www.thetakeoverpanel.org.uk, including details of the number of relevant securities in issue, when the offer period commenced and when any offeror was first identified. You should contact the Panel's Market Surveillance Unit on +44 (0) 20 7638 0129 if you are in any doubt as to whether you are required to make an Opening Position Disclosure or a Dealing Disclosure.

Publication on a website

A copy of this letter will be made available subject to certain restrictions relating to persons resident in restricted jurisdictions on the Company's website at www.iigplc.com by no later than 12 noon (London time) on the business day following the date of this letter. For the avoidance of doubt, the contents of this website are not incorporated into and do not form part of this letter.
